Eddie joined the FBI in 1972 with assignments in Pittsburgh, Phoenix, San Francisco and Santa Rosa offices and enjoyed a thirty-year career. Eddie was the lead investigator of the 1993 Polly Hannah Klaas kidnapping/murder investigation in Petaluma, California. Eddie also was a team member, team leader and tactical Team Commander of the FBI San Francisco SWAT Team. He created and coordinated the High Serra SWAT Team Challenge which later became the Urban Shield exercise offered by Alameda County Sheriff's Office. Eddie continued his career with numerous instructing assignments in northern California as well as corporate and private industry partnerships. In 2009, Eddie accepted a one-year deployment to Iraq as an embedded Law Enforcement Professional assisting the US Army in targeting and interrogation efforts. He also has instructed for the US State Department and DOJ before international policing audiences. In 2011, Eddie became the Undersheriff of the Walla Walla County Sheriff's Office. In 2014, Eddie returned to California and assisted our law enforcement efforts as a POST consultant and retired from POST in 2019. Eddie has been instructing Interview and Interrogation with BATI and has recently developed a POST certified cognitive decision-making course with Shadowbox Training.
