

Instructor

Derek Scott is from Fresno California where he is married and has three sons. Currently he is a Senior Investigator with the Fresno County District Attorney's Office working in the Cyber Crimes Unit and a Task Force Officer with Homeland Security Investigations. Prior to that Derek spent over 14 years with the Fresno Police Department. In addition to patrol experience he worked as a Crisis Negotiator and spent time as a detective with Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault units. After that he was assigned to the Central California Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force gaining valuable technical experience.

Instructor

Scott Gray has been a peace officer with the Fresno Police Department for over seven years. He is currently a detective in the street violence bureau investigating violent crimes and robberies. Prior to this assignment Scott worked as a school resource officer and district crimes detective in neighborhoods with large gang populations where he investigated numerous gang threats to students. As an investigator he has developed technical knowledge leading to arrests and convictions for violent crimes. Some of this knowledge includes authoring numerous warrants for social-media-based investigations, tracking and digital devices.